

21. The smell of coffee

1. Listen to the podcast and choose the correct option (A–C) for questions 1–5.

1. Catherine thinks the best part of drinking coffee is...
 - A) its aroma
 - B) its strong taste
 - C) the caffeine effect
2. According to Tim Hayward, the smell of coffee is...
 - A) unnecessary compared to the taste
 - B) the most crucial element
 - C) a minor detail in the coffee experience
3. What does the phrase physiological response mean in the podcast?
 - A) a bodily reaction to a stimulus
 - B) a mental image you get from smell
 - C) a social habit connected to drinking coffee
4. What problem does Tim Hayward mention about takeaway coffee cups with lids?
 - A) They prevent the coffee from cooling down quickly
 - B) They are too expensive for coffee shops
 - C) They block the smell that enhances the coffee experience
5. After Brazil, which country is the second-largest coffee producer in the world?
 - A) Vietnam
 - B) Colombia
 - C) Ethiopia

2. Listen again and complete questions 6–10 with up to two words or a number.

6. Catherine admits she sometimes drinks coffee _____ instead of every day.
7. Neil describes the coffee smell as better than its _____.
8. A company that has many stores in different places is called a _____.
9. Tim Hayward says he is _____ that coffee chains use lids which block the smell.
10. The word _____ is used to mean unusual or strange.

22. Happiness

1. Listen to the podcast and choose the correct option (A–C) for questions 1–5.

1. According to Rebecca, the arrival of spring makes her feel happier because of...

- A) a greater number of gatherings and events
- B) chances to go on holidays abroad
- C) longer daylight hours and increased sunshine

2. The first speaker says he feels happy when...

- A) he slows down and reflects on life
- B) he spends more time with friends
- C) he finishes his work quickly

3. What issue with happiness does the first speaker mention?

- A) it leads to pressure in everyday life
- B) it is based on owning things
- C) it vanishes before one can fully appreciate it

4. According to the second speaker, happiness is best described as...

- A) wealth and a good career
- B) constant joy all the time
- C) contentment and satisfaction with moments of joy

5. What two things does the second speaker say contribute to happiness?

- A) travelling and owning material goods
- B) good relationships and meaningful work
- C) wealth and independence

2. Listen again and complete questions 6–10 with up to two words or a number.

6. The phrase _____ means slowing down and examining your life.

7. 'Contentment' is being pleased with your situation and not hoping for _____.

8. The second speaker says he is never happier than when he is with his _____.

9. Many people believe that buying _____ can make them feel better.

10. According to research, above a certain point, _____ do not lead to happiness.

23. Workaholism

1. Listen to the podcast and choose the correct option (A–C) for questions 1–5.

1. Some employees are described as clock-watching. What does this suggest about their attitude at work?
 - A) they are motivated to finish tasks quickly
 - B) they enjoy working to strict deadlines
 - C) they are eager to leave as soon as possible
2. Why is unpaid overtime compared to an addiction?
 - A) people receive no benefit from doing it
 - B) workers feel unable to stop themselves
 - C) companies expect it as part of the job
3. According to Jackie, which modern factor has made it harder to maintain work-life balance?
 - A) access to mobile technology
 - B) increased competition in jobs
 - C) longer commuting times
4. When the lawyer used the term the norm, what did he mean?
 - A) everyone had to work at least 20 hours
 - B) long hours were treated as ordinary practice
 - C) weekends were reserved for rest
5. The phrase burn out is used to describe...
 - A) a loss of motivation to continue working
 - B) severe physical and emotional exhaustion
 - C) sudden illness caused by overwork

2. Listen again and complete questions 6–10 with up to two words or a number.

6. The lawyer mentioned working up to _____ during intense periods.
7. He said eating became a _____ compared to work.
8. Among the emotional effects were frustration, anxiety, and _____ about life's meaning.
9. Oliver James argued that workaholism lowers _____ instead of raising it.
10. People achieve the highest productivity when they take _____ and avoid long hours.

24. Pain

1. Listen to the podcast and choose the correct option (A–C) for questions 1–5.

1. Why did Callum unexpectedly hit Jennifer at the beginning of the programme?
A) to provide an amusing opening to the discussion
B) to demonstrate in practice whether she could tolerate pain
C) to encourage her to imagine life without pain
2. Which rare medical condition was Steve Pete diagnosed with in childhood?
A) a neurological disorder that prevents him from controlling movements
B) congenital analgesia, meaning he cannot experience physical pain
C) a genetic illness that weakens his bones and causes frequent fractures
3. What method did the pediatrician use to reach a diagnosis?
A) he exposed Steve's foot to heat and looked for a reaction
B) he observed Steve's behavior when chewing objects
C) he carried out a routine medical test involving injections
4. What main difficulty did Steve and his brother face during their early years?
A) they developed emotional stress from being treated differently from other children
B) they were excluded from most physical activities at school for safety reasons
C) they repeatedly injured themselves because they lacked warning signals from pain
5. What does Steve admit about his ability to feel empathy?
A) he has little understanding of how physical pain affects others
B) he is unable to imagine emotional pain as well as physical suffering
C) he avoids situations where people talk about painful experiences

2. Listen again and complete questions 6–10 with up to two words or a number.

6. Jennifer guessed that the medical word _____ has its roots in Greek, a language which has contributed many terms to science.
7. As a toddler, Steve injured himself severely by chewing through a large part of his own_____.
8. Since childhood accidents often left the brothers with broken bones, they spent long periods wearing a protective_____.
9. Callum explained that after his operation, pain acted as a signal forcing him to remain still, which in turn supported the process of_____.
10. The word _____ describes the human capacity to understand and share another person's feelings.